

How Alumnae Engage Today

1,271
attended reunion 2022,
along with 442 guests

924

served as volunteer leaders with classes, regional groups, and Shared Identity Groups

229

volunteered to share their experiences with prospective students

867

mentored 650 students in the first Mentorship Affinity Pods (MAPs)

12,288

read the magazine in print

56,297

people read the magazine online

1,571

members of the classes of 1941 to 2022 sent updates to Class Notes

$54.5M

raised to support our alma mater today and into the future, thanks to your generosity

16

engaged in the first alumnae Seeking Educational Equity and Diversity (SEED) program

6,702

from 61 countries engaged in virtual programs

36

traveled together on College-sponsored trips to Greece and Antarctica

2,497

tuned in to online faculty speaker events

563

joined our ranks in June 2022, welcomed by 1,600 letters from alums

62

joined us in December 2022